WHAT THE SCHOOLS ARE TO DO.

Francis' Bellamy, chairman of the xecutive committee, offers the followexecutive committee, offers the follow-executive committee, offers the following among other suggestions:

The first duty of each school is to attend to its own morning celebration.

Teachers, superintendents and school boards should content that action may be harmonious, and the best results attained. The proposed eclebration should be superintendents at a trained. The proposed eclebration should be explained to each school at the carliest moment. It should be so presented as to awaken enthusiasm. Interesting topics relating to Columbus, and the discovery should be suggested for special investigation. Such topics might be: "The Map of the World Before the Discovery." Important inventions and Events of Europe Jest Before the Discovery. "The Stars of Columbus," "The Shibs of Columbus," "What Columbus Expected to Pind," "Geographical Growth of the United States," "States of South America," etc. The teacher should assign the address and the ode to those who can render them most intelligently. The flag saliste and the songs should be perstatently rehearsed.

Important committees of pupils should be.
